SENATE FEELS OUTRAGED

Holds Executive Session and Declares Scraps in Contempt.

in colonizing the negroes in the southern states of this country.

"When later he asked a question to the 'chicken' on the other side of the chamber," Mr. Spooner inquired to whom he referred.

"I have many friends on the Republican side," said Mr. Tillman.

"Personally, you are a nice, I mean good-hearted sort of man, but politically you are the most infamous scoundrel and hypocrite that ever happened." (Laughter.)

In the course of his speech Mr. Tillman became involved in a lively colloquy with Mr. Spooner, (Wisconsin), regarding the ratification of the Paris treaty. The South Carolina senator referred to Mr. Spooner's comments in his speech yesterday.

Upon the part taken by W. J. Bryan in securing the ratification of the treaty, he argued with the Wisconsin senator that the influence of Mr. Bryan was potent, but insisted that even his influence was not sufficient to induce the senate to ratify the treaty. After he had done all that was possible for him to do Mr. Tillman asserted, the Republicans lacked votes enough.

"You know," he shouted, shaking his finger at the Republican side, "how those votes were necessary were secured."

"How were they secured?" demanded Mr. Spooner.

"I know," the senator does not," replied Mr. Tillman. "I have received information in confidence from that side of the chamber. I know from that that improper influences were used in getting those votes."

"Name them," insisted Mr. Spooner, "when those influences were brought to bear. It is due the senate and due the man that he name them. A man who impeaches another in confidence is a coward. If the senator knows of any man who has been improperly influenced, he should name him."

"I know," asserted Mr. Tillman, "that the influence of the federal patronage of a state has been paroled out to a senator as such the ratification of that treaty."

"What state?" demanded Mr. Spooner.

"South Carolina," shouted Mr. Tillman.

"Then," said Mr. Spooner, "I leave you to fight the matter out with your colleagues."

"Well," retorted Mr. Tillman, "I never shrink the responsibility for a statement I make. I know that he, Mr. McLaurin, his colleague, voted for the treaty. I know that improper influences were brought to bear. I know what I believe."

"You simply believe," retorted Mr. Spooner, "that you do not know."

"I know," retorted Mr. Tillman, "that the feeling engendered manifested itself later in a thrilling and sensational scene."

Mr. Tillman continuing his speech, read some letters from commissioners in the Philippines giving the alleged atrocities practiced on the natives by the American forces. He told of 100 Filipinos to whom, the writer stated, the "water cure" had been administered, and resulted in the death of all but twenty-six of them.

Mr. Hear interrupted to say that he had received many letters making charges against the American forces, but in every instance the writers had given him the information either in confidence or as incidents of which they merely had heard of and of which they professed to know nothing personally. He protested against information of that kind and declared:

"I do not want anybody to tell me in confidence of a crime."

Mr. Burton, (Kans.), interrupted to defend General Funston, upon whom he said, the comments of Mr. Tillman had reflected, as the senators who were charged in the letters the South Carolina senator had read, with the committee under General Funston's command.

Mr. Burton read General Funston's exonerating report of the very same which had been referred to by Mr. Tillman, the senator concluding:

"This statement I wish to brand as an atrocious lie, without the slightest foundation. Statements of this kind are simply brazen-faced and brazen-faced is repeated in the senate of the United States."

Mr. Burton quoted General Funston as saying that practices of this kind were sometimes resorted to by Macabebes, apaches, (natives).

"That's a confession of the truth of the charges," shouted Mr. Tillman. He disclaimed, however, any reflections upon General Funston.

Soon afterward Mr. Tillman concluded his remarks.

Scarcely had he resumed his seat when there was erupted one of the most sensational scenes ever witnessed in the history of the United States senate.

Trembling with emotion, which in vain he endeavored to conceal, Mr. McLaurin, (S. C.), rose and addressed the senate, speaking to a question of personal privilege.

Instantly a hush fell over the senate and over the people in the thronged galleries. The very atmosphere seemed charged with excitement. With breathless interest the audience both on the floor and in the galleries looked on.

Mr. McLaurin, who had been seated, rose and uttered a few words which were uttered by the senator from South Carolina. Despite the emotion under which he was laboring, Mr. McLaurin seemed to be the calmest man in the chamber.

He spoke with deliberation and his enunciation was clear and distinct.

Every word he uttered seemed to be felt as a blow, and in the remotest part of the historic old hall.

"Mr. President," he began, "I rise to a question of personal privilege."

He had not voiced a dozen words, yet the excitement by this time had become intense. All seemed to realize that a portentous event was about to happen.

HENRY'S BOAT IS SIGHTED

Prince Himself Will Arrive Off Sandy Hook.

AT TEN O'CLOCK A. M.

Part of Program Will be Carried Out Today.

SNOW SQUALL RAGES

Evans and His Crowd Are Buncoed by Elements.

New York, Feb. 22.—The Kron Prinz Wilhelm, with Prince Henry of Prussia, on board, will arrive off Sandy Hook at 10 o'clock this (Sunday) morning.

A posse started after them, and, after a running fight, two of the band were captured and taken to Tompkinsville from Kew-Falls. The Indians are George and Peter Huplitt. They stated that they were getting arms to go to Yards-Ka-Cute's home near Eufaula. Yard-Ka-Cute is a blind interpreter.

At that time, the storm which had been raging all day increased. The wind blew at the rate of fifty miles an hour, and at 3 o'clock a snowstorm started in, which increased in violence every minute. As darkness came on the holiday decorations which had been flying all day from the masts of the warships were hauled down, and a little later nothing could be seen of the fleet, but the twinkling lights which came from the portholes, the day had been one of gloom in the vicinity of the man-of-war anchorage, notwithstanding the bustling flapping sails in the wind. Hardly a single vessel had passed the squadron during the day owing to the inclement weather.

Saturday broke black and threatening, with a cold wind whistling through the rigging of the ships. Every thought was for the Kron Prinz Wilhelm and Prince Henry, but the elements intervened and prevented the carrying out of the program which had been arranged.

The naval vessels and numerous boats, anchored nearby, awaited some word from the shore off Staten Island, was shut off from the rest of the world, and even if news of the movements of the German Prince had been received in New York, it could not have been conveyed quickly to the waiting fleet in the harbor, hanked on every side by ice which rose and fell in great billows as it yielded to the force of the waves sweeping in from the ocean.

The Prince is scheduled to place a wreath on Grant's tomb in the afternoon and to be the guest of the December Verdin in the evening. At midnight he is to leave for Washington, escorted by the president's delegates.

The program may be changed. At quarantine late at night the wind had moderated, the snow had ceased falling and a clear sky seemed to indicate clear weather for today. Ships arriving off Sandy Hook reported very rough weather outside, a furious gale raging all Friday night.

At the Irving Place theatre the program as arranged for the entertainment of Prince Henry was carried out last night as if he had been present. A crowd of house liberally applauded the play, "A Blank Page."

The German ambassador, Count Von Holleben, Admiral Von Budden and fifteen members of his staff and Consul General Buenz occupied boxes. The theatre was crowded with a representative and fashionable audience, the entire orchestra and a balcony being occupied by men and women in full dress. The house was beautifully decorated with evergreens interspersed with American bayonet roses and smilax, combined with the German and American colors. During the intermission between the second and third acts, the orchestra rendered the German and American national anthems, the entire audience rising.

"DOWN WITH AMERICANS" Is Cry of Striking Boilers On Island of Porto Rico.

San Juan, Porto Rico, Feb. 22.—Dispatches from Ponce last night say that striking boilermakers had a riot of the picketing trawler workmen yesterday, and that bloodshed was only averted with the greatest difficulty. A mob numbering hundreds of persons controlled Ponce for two hours, the police not being numerous enough to suppress the disorder.

The chief of police and the American commander of the post were surrounded after the chief had arrested the ringleader of the rioters. A crowd of people followed the three men to the city hall, shouting: "Down with the Americans!" The chief, thanks to the coolness and bravery of the American employees of the post, who were armed with revolvers, prevented a serious conflict. The native workmen on the trolley line are well paid and are satisfied with their wages. They would not have struck had they not been intimidated by outsiders.

assistant postmaster general, are entirely unfounded. The Eagle correspondent is in a position tonight to assert that unless the situation greatly changes Bristow positively will remain.

FOUR PERSONS ELECTROCUTED Wires are All Down and Philadelphia Is Shut Out of World.

New York, Feb. 22.—Mail advices from Philadelphia say that city is completely shut out from electrical communication with the outside world as though such a thing as a telegraph wire or telephone wire never existed. The storm is the most disastrous sleet storm, as far as wires are concerned, that has ever visited that section.

Within the city limits scarcely a single overhead wire is in working order. Poles are down in all directions, and wires are dangling from housetops on nearly every street. On Front street, which skirts the Delaware river, thirty big poles on one line were broken off and are lying in the street.

Four persons were killed in Philadelphia during yesterday and last night by coming in contact with heavily charged wires.

At least twenty-five horses were killed during the day by broken wires.

STOLE ARMS AND AMUNITION Crazy Snakes Followers Loot Store At Keokuk Falls.

Guthrie, O. T., Feb. 22.—A band of Crazy Snake's followers made a raid on a store at Keokuk Falls yesterday, just across the line in the Creek country. A posse started after them, and, after a running fight, two of the band were captured and taken to Tompkinsville from Kew-Falls. The Indians are George and Peter Huplitt. They stated that they were getting arms to go to Yards-Ka-Cute's home near Eufaula. Yard-Ka-Cute is a blind interpreter.

SHOT BABY GIRL Hired Girl Endangers to Cling to Little Companion.

New York, Feb. 22.—A peculiar tragedy has occurred in the residence of Wm. J. Simonds at Cary, a suburb of Yonkers. It resulted in the serious wounding of a Georgian, the 5-year-old Simonds child, and the probable fatal wounding of her own hands of Amelia Fletcher, a Hungarian servant. The cause of the shooting which was done by the servant is supposed to have been in insane fondness for the child, whom she feared being separated from her through dismissal.

TO CONVERT SENATE Oklahoma Advocates Turn Attention to That Body.

Washington, Feb. 22.—It is believed in congressional circles that Oklahoma statehood will be passed by the house today. Believing this, its advocates are turning attention to the senate. This hopeful belief comes since the action of house committees on territories to report favorably and unanimously the statehood bill.

Washington, Feb. 22.—Grover Cleveland has declined the invitation of President Roosevelt to attend the banquet at the White House in honor of Prince Henry, assigning as a reason ill health.

London, Feb. 22.—Official reports of the newspaper existing in London show an increase of 0.25 pence over the corresponding period of 1901, and the highest total in twenty-five years, with the exception of a corresponding week in 1865. The increase is partly attributable to the unusual cold.

LOUISVILLE WITH DEWEY Louisville, Ky., Feb. 22.—There were loud cheers as Bob Fitzsimmons stepped through the ropes to referee the preliminary event, and urgent calls for a speech. After some hesitation Fitzsimmons advanced to the ropes and said:

M'GOVERN
THE VICTOR

Terry Floors Dave Sullivan After Fifteen Rounds.

OF DESPERATE FIGHTING

Both Men Fight Like Tigers to Bitter End.

SLAM-BANG AT ALL TIMES

Sullivan Tries Vainly to Raise on Ninth Count.

Louisville, Ky., Feb. 22.—Terry McGovern defeated Dave Sullivan in the arena of the Southern Athletic club tonight after fifteen rounds of a desperate fighting as was even seen any ring. From the first tap of the song until the end it was slam-bang, hammer and tongs, nearly every second, both men working away with all the energy they possessed.

McGovern, knowing that the fight meant his position in the front rank as a fighter, was after his man every second. In the majority of the rounds he was on the aggressive and Sullivan was forced to do far more defensive work than his opponent. He put up a wonderful fight, however, was game to the core, and lost the fight more through a blunder of his own than because he was knocked out.

When the finish came, however, he was groggy and going fast. The chances are that he would not have lasted many more rounds, even had he risen before Fitzsimmons called time.

In the fifth round Sullivan was at his best. He forced the fighting especially in the last half, and had McGovern plainly going. The latter walked in very unsteady fashion as he went to his corner and nothing but his splendid recuperative power enabled him to come out in shape for the sixth round. He came out strong, however, and although there were times when Sullivan seemed about to turn the tide his way again, from that time on McGovern kept steadily but very slowly gaining the upper hand. He fought ever forward and Sullivan was gradually but surely going backward. Sullivan was badly punished, his left ear being split open, his face cracked, his nose well pounded up and his right eye partly closed. The latter happened early in the fight and McGovern paid particular attention to it throughout.

During the 12th, 13th and 14th rounds Sullivan was slowly going. McGovern was at him like a bullet every instant. The end came when the 15th round was nearly over. McGovern had forced Sullivan into a neutral corner. He landed a storm of right and left swings and catching Sullivan with the left square on the jaw sent him down on his back. Sullivan was up like a flash, but did not rise from his knees. He was confused, groggy and nearly out. Fitzsimmons counted nine, and as he uttered the word "stop" Sullivan started to rise, but did not get higher than a low crouch. The instant his knee was off the floor McGovern came after him and Sullivan, hardly knowing what he was about, went down again. The referee promptly declared him out and McGovern the victor. Sullivan attempted to question the decision, but Fitzsimmons would not listen to him. After the fight was over Fitzsimmons said: "Sullivan was down more than ten seconds before he tried to rise. He was on his knee fully five seconds before I began to count and had he stood up when I said nine and been saved by the song I would have declared him out. He was down and out for keeps."

Proceeding the fight challenges to the winner were received from Eddie Gardner, Austin Rice, Harry Harris, Young Corbett and Abe Bell. Sam Harris, McGovern's manager, and McGovern's next fight would be with Young Corbett if the latter held to his challenge.

Louisville, Ky., Feb. 22.—There were loud cheers as Bob Fitzsimmons stepped through the ropes to referee the preliminary event, and urgent calls for a speech. After some hesitation Fitzsimmons advanced to the ropes and said:
